PANCHAYAT RAJ DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 12th December, 1962

No. Panch. 1-4/60.—The following draft of amendments to the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Rules which the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh proposes to make in exercise of the powers vested in him under sub-section (2) of section 135 read with section 42 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act are hereby published in Himachal Pradesh Administration Gazette as required by sub-section (1) of section 135 of the said Act.

Any persons who have any objection a suggestion to make to the proposed amendments may send the same to the undersigned within a period of one month from the date of publication of this notification in the Himachal Pradesh Rajpatra. The objection a suggestion received within the prescribed period will be duly considered by the competent authority before adopting the amendment finally.

Rule 244.—Rule 244 shall be substituted by the following:—

A Gram Panchayat, may appoint a tax collector for collecting taxes within its jurisdiction.

(2) The tax collector, shall have to furnish a cash security of such amount as may be prescribed by the District Panchayat Officer, refundable at the time of his relinquishing the duties. The District Panchayat Officer may relax the amount of security if it is so decided on some solid grounds. A Panchayat Secretary can also be appointed as tax collector provided his regular duties do not suffer in any way.

(3) The tax collector may be paid by the Panchayat, a commission not exceeding 6-1/4 % of the total collections made.

Rule 245.—Rule 245 shall be substituted by the following:—

ASSESSMENT AND RECOVERY OF TAXES

(a) A Gram Panchayat shall constitute a sub-committee consisting of 5 members, to be called as "Assessment of Taxes Sub-Committee", which shall prepare the assessment list of taxes and it shall function for one year;

(b) A President or vice-President, if a member of this sub-committee, shall be the Chairman, but if the President or Vice-President is not the member of the sub-committee, the members will elect a chairman from among themselves.

(c) A Panchayat may appoint 2 members from outside on this sub-committee, if it thinks that they are specially suited for the work of the sub-committee by virtue of their qualifications or experience.

(d) The quorum for its meeting shall be three members, but a meeting postponed for want of quorum, shall not require the quorum.

(e) The chairman shall have a casting vote in case of equality of vote in the sub-committee.

(f) The Chairman shall fix time, place etc., for the meeting and shall be responsible for the timely completion of the assessment.

(g) In case of a casual vacancy, the Panchayat shall make fresh appointment to the committee. For reasons to be recorded. The Gram Panchayat may remove any member of the committee or dissolve the committee and make fresh appointments.

(h) The assessment list prepared by the committee and duly signed by its members shall be put up in the Panchayat. The Panchayat will publish the same and fix copies at conspicuous places as well as in the office of the Panchayat for the information of the public.

(i) Any person who feels aggrieved by the said assessment may file his objections before the Gram Panchayat within 15 days of such publication and the decision of the Panchayat shall be appealable to the District Panchayat Officer within 15 days of such order of the Panchayat, whose decision shall be final.

(j) The Secretary shall after the expiry of the period prescribed for appeal, accordingly make entries in the demand and collection register in form No. 17 and supply a true copy thereof duly signed by the President of the Panchayat to the tax collector for necessary collections. The Panchayat may also decide regarding the collection of all or any of the taxes in one or more instalments.

(k) The assessment list shall contain assessment of taxes imposed under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of Rule 246 of Panchayat Rules against the name of the assessee concerned.

(l) The assessment Committee shall work out the average produce per bigha for the last three years in respect of Rabi as well as Kharif crops and the average thus worked out will be the standard produce for three years for the purposes of assessment of taxes under clauses (a) and (b) and (c) of Rule 246 of the Panchayat Rules. Similarly the value for the produce shall be calculated at the average rate of three years and the tax shall be assessed at the rate approved by the Administration.

(m) The assessment committee shall keep in view the revenue records wherever necessary for the determination of the average produce per bigha at various altitudes.

(n) A Gram Sabha may impose a marriage tax on persons residing within its jurisdiction at a rate not exceeding Rs. 10 per marriage. The tax shall be payable by the person married or by head of his family or any member of his family on behalf of him, as the case may be and the tax shall be paid within 7 days from the date of marriage at the Panchayat office and on a proper receipt, to the President or Secretary of the Panchayat concerned. The Secretary of the Panchayat shall thereafter register the marriage in the register to be maintained by the Panchayat for the purpose.

(o) A Gram Sabha may also impose a birth tax at a rate not exceeding Re. 1 per birth which shall be payable either by the parents or guardian of the child or the Karta of the family in which the child is born within 3 days from the date of birth of the child at the office of the Panchayat and the payment shall be made to the President or the Secretary on a proper receipt:

Provided that if the child-born dies within 3 days from the date of birth no tax shall be paid.

(p) No drama, circus, or cinema or any other entertainment shall be organised within the jurisdiction of the Gram Sabha without the prior permission in writing from the President or Secretary or any other person authorised by the Panchayat in this behalf and without payment of the prescribed fee to the Gram Panchayat concerned.

(q) Gram Sabha may impose an entertainment tax not exceeding the rate given below:—

1. Rs. 5 per show of a drama.
2. Rs. 10 show of a circus.
3. Rs. 10 per show of a cinema.
4. Rs. 5 for any other entertainments per show.

(r) Tax will be payable by the individual or the party head and the payment shall be made on proper receipt to the President or Secretary at the office of the Panchayat:

Provided that no tax shall be charged on any entertainment given by the Public Relations Department or any other Department of the Central or the State Government or entertainment given by the Panchayat itself or any local or children institutions.

(s) Gram Sabha may impose a house tax to be payable at a rate not exceeding 1 % of the capital value of the house which will be determined by the Panchayat or the assessment committees, keeping in view the local conditions, prevailing, material etc.

(t) Gram Sabha may impose a tax, at a rate not exceeding five rupees per building (exclusive of the taxes referred to in the foregoing rules) on construction of any building under Rule 246 (f) of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Rules. The tax imposed will be recovered before the permission for the construction of the house or houses is given.

(u) A tax on the transfer of immovable property within the area of Gram Sabha may be levied under Rule 246 (g) of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Rules. The tax shall be payable by the vender/vendee to the President within 15 days from the date of such transfer. It shall be the duty of the tax payer to produce before the Gram Panchayat or any person authorised by the Panchayat in this behalf, the necessary transfer deeds or any other document immediately after the sale deed has been effected for the determination of the tax to be paid by him.

(v) (i) The tax shall be collected by the tax collector from 1st of May to 15th of July in summer and from 1st of November to 15th of January in winter each year excepting case of taxes where it has otherwise been provided.

(ii) House tax imposed under clause (o) of Rule 246 shall be collected in the manner provided in sub-clause (i) above.

(iii) The expenditure on assessment and collection of taxes shall in no case exceed 10 % of the total collections.

(iv) Gram Panchayat may for sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing exempt the following persons from payment of any or all of the tax/taxes imposed:

- (1) Lunatic.
- (2) Persons suffering from Chronic contagious diseases, such as, T.B., Cancer, Leprosy etc., and having no other supporter to be depended upon.
- (3) Any other destitute.

(v) In the event of any natural calamity like famine or hailstorm etc., the Panchayat may remit the whole or portion of any instalment of tax payable to it after getting approval of District Panchayat Officer. While doing this the Panchayat shall be bound to take into account the decision of the Revenue authorities in respect of remission of land revenue payable to the Administration in a particular locality.

(vi) No assessment and no charge or demand of any tax made under the authority of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act and Rules or bye-laws made thereunder shall be impeached or effected by reason of any mistake in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of any person liable to pay the tax or in the description of any property or thing subject to pay taxation or of any mistake in the amount of assessment of tax, by reasons of any clerical error or other defect of form, and it shall be enough if any such tax on property or any assessment of value for the purpose of any such tax if the property taxed or assessed is so described as to be generally known and it shall not be necessary to name the owner occupier thereof.

(w) Where any person liable to pay any tax imposed in accordance with the foregoing rules is in default in making a payment of the tax, he shall make himself liable for action as laid down in section 124 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act. In case the arrears stand uncleared till the realisation of the next instalment and the payment is not made as to fulfil the whole demand, the President of the Panchayat shall issue a certificate as provided in section 124 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act for the realisation of the tax along with the penalty. Penalty may be imposed within the maximum rate permissible under section 124 of the Himachal Pradesh, Panchayat Raj Act and subject to the condition that the penalty will not exceed the amount of arrears.

AMENDMENT OF RULE 246 OF HIMACHAL PRADESH PANCHAYAT RULES

The word "Gram Panchayat" occurring in the heading and first line of Rule 246 shall be substituted by the word "Gram Sabha".
